If I had a bell, I'd ring it in the morning
 I'd ring it in the evening, all over this land
 I'd ring it in danger, I'd ring out a warning
 I'd ring in love between my brothers and my sisters all over this land

If I had a song, I'd sing it in the morning
 I'd sing it in the evening, all over this land
 I'd sing it in danger, I'd sing out a warning
 I'd sing in love between my brothers and my sisters all over this land

Well I got a hammer and I got a bell
 And I got a song to sing all over this land
 It's the hammer of justice, it's the bell of freedom
 It's a song about love between my brothers and my sisters all over this land

By Pete Seeger, Origins: It was written in support of the progressive movement and debuted at a benefit for Communist Party leaders on trial, leading the Weavers to face blacklisting. Later sung by Peter, Paul, & Mary during the Civil Rights Movement.
